DRESS CODE

In order to promote respect for ourselves and for the opposite sex, clear guidelines with regards to dress have been established for summer conferences. Please review these guidelines as you prepare for the conference and pack accordingly.

- Shirts should touch the waistline of shorts/pants/skirts and should cover the stomach and back. Furthermore, shorts should not be tight or low cut. There should be no exposure of cleavage or under-garments (this includes boxer shorts).
- Bathing suits must be modest.
- Shorts/skirts should be no shorter than fingertip length (When a person is standing up straight with the arms hanging straight down, their fingertips should be touching their shorts/skirts).
- Clothing should not display sexually suggestive or offensive pictures or words.
- Modesty is the key! Respect the conference staff's decisions concerning the appropriateness of your attire.

"Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body."

-1 Corinthians 6:19-20

"But among you there must not be even a hint of sexual immorality, or of any kind of impurity, or of greed, because these are improper for God's holy people."

-Ephesians 5:3

SPEAKERS

HORIZON SPEAKER: JAMES MCMANUS

James McManus grew up in Sumter, SC. He came to a saving faith in Jesus Christ during his sophomore year in high school, but didn't fully understand what it meant to faithfully live the Christian faith until college. During college, he was active with Reformed University Fellowship (RUF).

While in seminary, James served as the Pastoral Intern at Olivet Presbyterian Church in McConnells, SC. After graduating seminary, he was called to be the Associate Pastor of Youth and Families at White Oak ARP in Senoia, GA, where he served for six years. He currently pastors Bethel ARP in Winnsboro, SC.

James met his wife, Beth, through RUF at Winthrop. They have three children, Maggie, Hannah, and Patrick.

QUEST SPEAKER: EVAN ENGLISH

Evan is no stranger to Quest and we are excited to have him back. He teaches Bible at Westminster Schools in Augusta, GA. Prior to being a teacher, Evan was the pastor of Clover ARP Church in Clover, SC. He and his wife Kim have two children, Owen and Annelise. They are huge University of Georgia fans!

What are Quest and Horizon?

Horizon (high school) and Quest (middle school) are annual Christ-centered summer youth conferences hosted at the Bonclarken Conference Center in Flat Rock, North Carolina. Students lodge and attend conference activities with their church group. There are no camp counselors provided at Quest and Horizon.

Conference Program

The conference program consists of daily morning and evening sessions in the Youth Activities Building (YAB), including lively large group worship, games, skits, and Christ-centered teaching. Horizon students (high-school age) also attend morning seminars focused on a variety of theological topics. A sample schedule is included below.

Recreation and Conference Center Activities

Throughout the week there are planned fellowship activities and unstructured time for recreation. In the afternoon, students have three and a half hours of free time during which they can participate in tournaments, conference adventure activities, games and crafts. Other planned activities include a cookout, carnival, pizza party, color run, pool party, and sludge war. Example schedules from past years are included below.

Food

Meals at Bonclarken are served in a self-serve, buffet format. In addition to hot, home-cooked items, breakfast options include a fruit bar and cold cereal; lunch and dinner options include a full salad bar and desserts. Accommodations can be made for those with food allergies or other special needs.

Sample Menu

Students with Disabilities

Horizon and Quest are inclusive conferences and all students of all abilities are welcome to attend and participate with their church group. If you are a student or youth group leader with questions about conference accessibility or accommodations, please contact Seth and Rachel Philbrick at seth.philbrick@gmail.com and rachel.v.philbrick@gmail.com.
